Czech Cabinet Accepts Pres. Benes' Resignation

By The Associated Press

PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, June 7—Ill and exhausted, President Edvard Benes resigned today rather than approve a new constitution drawn up by the Communists.

Benes, 64, had served as president 11 years, in two terms, and his present term had five years to run.

Premier Klement Gottwald's office announced the cabinet accepted the resignation and voted to continue Benes's presidential salary and give him the presidential house at Lany.

The president's letter, released by the premier's office, said Benes told Gottwald May 4 that he had "definitely decided to resign from the office of president."

"At this time," the letter said, "we discussed my decision and all the problems of the whole political situation and I told you also that my doctors had advised me to heed my present condition of health."

The letter said the president asked the premier to transmit to parliament the request to allow him to resign.

He resigned once before — in 1938 after the Munich conference brought the German invasion— but reassumed the presidency in London, July 21, 1940. He first became president in December, 1935, after Thomas G. Masaryk resigned because of age and illness. Benes had been Masaryk's foreign minister 17 years and helped him found the Czechoslovak republic.

Three months ago Masaryk's son Jan, Benes foreign minister, was found dead—a suicide, the Communist government said. That followed the Communist coup in February which sharply reduced Benes powers. He resigned rather than accept the "people's democracy constitution" which the Communists put forward. He disagreed with its provisions and disapproved of the single ticket parliamentary elections which the Communist regime held eight days ago.

EDUARD BENES

The first announcement of the resignation said only that a communique would be issued later. There was no promise that the contents of Benes' letter of resignation would be made public.

LEWIS OPENS WITH BLASTS AT OPERATORS

Calls Them "Fat Cats, Opulent," and Tells What Miners Expect.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 7—John L. Lewis opened soft coal contract talks today with a blast of denunciation at the operators.

He called them "fat cats * * * magnificently opulent * * * digging deep and without restraint in the national purse."

He made two points clear about any agreement replacing the contract expiring June 30.

1. The United Mine Workers have no wage proposals, but they "expect improvements."

2. They want guarantees under the 1947 miners' welfare fund which has paid out nothing because it is tied up in legal dispute.

He put the next move up to the operators. The miners will consider any offer "which you may persuade yourselves to utter," Lewis said.

This was in a statement with which Lewis opened the negotiations.

He scornfully told the operators they had reduced collective bargaining "to mockery."

Not Present Willingly

Lewis said he and his union attended the court-ordered bargaining conference "only through duress."

He was directed to negotiate with the Southern Coal Producers association by Justice T. Alan Goldsborough, against his will and under injunction.

Goldsborough acted under the Taft-Hartley act which Lewis called "the first major thrust of fascist tyranny in the republic."

Directing his remarks at the operators, the UMW leader said:

"You and your industry are magnificently opulent. Your 1946 profits were without parellel. In 1947 you increased them twice and even thrice. In recent months you have levied additional increases upon each ton of coal sold.

"You are digging deep and without restraint into the national purse. From time to time you raise outcries against the men who mine your coal; and while the gullible public is bewildered by our outcries, you pluck more doubloons from the consumers of coal.

"In this fashion and with hardened conscience you have become the most corpulent of our native fat cats."

Concerning the court action instituted by President Joseph E. Moody of the Southern Coal Producers association to force Lewis to bargain with him, Lewis said:

"As representatives of labor, we sit here under attainder; in reverse, your limbs are unshackled.

"Free collective bargaining? You have reduced the words to mockery."

Lewis had himself appointed chairman of the mine workers negotiators. Harvey Cartwright of Terre Haute, Ind., was designated chairman of the operators' group.

In his formal statement, Lewis seemed to extend a definite strike threat with the statement that:

"We assume that you would deplore any impairment of your abnormal income after July 1."

Arrive Late

Lewis was 15 minutes late for the negotiations which he arranged after Justice T. Alan Goldsborough directed him to include the Southern Coal Producers association in contract talks.

31 Seniors Receive Diplomas At St. Mary Commencement

By EDNA S. DUTTON

Presentation of diplomas and scholastic awards by Very Rev. William J. Spickerman, V.F., pastor, an address by Rev. Elmer Boyden, assistant pastor and solemn benediction marked the sixty-eighth annual commencement exercises of St. Mary Parochial High school yesterday afternoon in St. Mary Catholic church.

The exercises, held at 4 o'clock ended high school activities for 31 seniors to whom Rev. Boyden dedicated his address. He commended them for their loyalty to and practice of their faith, their devotion to Mary, the Mother of Christ and paid tribute to the love, sacrifice and cooperation of pastors, parents and Sisters of Charity throughout the years.

The seniors, together with the entire high school occupied the main section of the church and hymns for the exercises and solemn benediction were sung by the group.

Picturing the world of today as breaking with the traditions of the past and groping for new ways of life, and sincere, but often misdirected efforts being made to build new foundations for stable living among the peoples of the world, the task that lies ahead, Rev. Boyden said is one with demands on the knowledge of man's mind, and the courage of man's heart.

"No nation," he said, "can pass through a travail such as the world has known in these past few years without in some way losing its direction, finding itself lost, bewildered and afraid." Pointing out that the seeds of hate, bitterness and death, flung broadcast on the battlefields during war years are even now blossoming and reaching full flower, the world, he said, has lost sight of its goal. It knows not the way it must go; it has not the spirit for the heartbreaking task that lies ahead.

Efforts Toward Better

Citing the fact that our own nation is making every effort to alleviate the sufferings of less fortunate people and that statesmen are spending long and weary hours trying to bring order and harmony to the nations of the world "the forces of a Godless communism are at work in the world, seeking to divide man, to set nation against nation, class against class, brother against brother, knowing that divided, confused, hating men are not men who can think and plan clearly; are not men who can work together in a bond of friendship toward a common goal.

"There is all too evident in the councils of the mighty, the lack of a true knowledge of the nature of man and his relation to his Creator," Rev. Boyden said in referring to the crisis faced by the world today, "a crisis, which threatens the very foundations of sane, peaceful Christian living. There is all too evident the lack of a guiding spirit which can unite men, their hearts and their desires for their own welfare and for the honor of God. There is not only this lack of knowledge and a lack of spirit, but a positive effort to ignore God, to deny Him His rightful place as the source of all our happiness the goal towards which we must work.

"The Catholic church has always had a deep and abiding conviction that if education means anything at all, it means to prepare our youth for a life of service to their fellowmen, a life that will give to themselves, their families and those with whom they come in contact, the fullest measure of earthly happiness — it means to prepare them for a life dedicated to the honor and service of God. Our wise mother the church, knows there must be woven into the education of youth, into the development of mind and heart and spirit -God and His Love. We of the church firmly believe that to educate our youth means not only to bring their bodies to a healthy maturity, teach them the skills of the intellect and the discipline of will, but to teach these things in a way that will increase their share in the life of God; the works of man's industry, the wonders of science, the beauty of art, the power of learning will find their fullest meaning and truest completion only when there is also given an understanding of the treasures of grace flowing from the infinite heart of God."

In addition to presenting the diplomas Rev. Spickerman presented gold medals for general excellence to Claudine Scranton, Ann McGinnis and Richard Schuler and for perfect attendance to Miss Scranton and John Murphy. Miss Scranton also received a scholarship to Mount St. Joseph-on-the-Ohio at Cincinnati, given by the Sisters of Charity, in recognition of her school work. Robert Stuber, a member of the class, was presented his diploma by his uncle Rev. Theodore Stuber, D.D., of Wilmington.

In the sanctuary with the pastor and Rev. Boyden for the exercises and solemn benediction were Rev. Theodore Stuber, D.D., pastor of St. Columkill Catholic church at Wilmington and Rev. Hugh Murphy, assistant pastor at St. Mary. Rev. Spickerman was the celebrant for benediction, Rev. Boyden deacon and Rev. Murphy sub-deacon.

Miss Jane Baldauf presided at the organ. She played the "Processional" by Mendelssohn and the "Recessional" by Elgar and accompanied the students for the singing of "Send Forth Thy Spirit," Schuetky-Hornish, "Ave Verum," traditional, "Tantum Ergo," Verdussen and "Psalm 150," Cesar Franck.

Following benediction the graduating class went to the convent garden where they received their relatives and friends. The seniors attended the 7:30 o'clock mass and received Holy Communion in a body after which they were guests of the sophomore class at breakfast at Greenwood Inn.

PRES. TRUMAN ENTERS IDAHO

Advocates Public Power Projects; Democratic Leader Deserts President.

By The Associated Press

ABOARD TRUMAN TRAIN ENROUTE TO SUN VALLEY, Idaho, June 7—President Truman entered Idaho today advocating public power and reclamation projects against what he said was the opposition of some "who would put the welfare of a few promoters over the welfare of the people."

The Chief Executive told a train side crowd at Pocatello he hoped to get congress to provide at least "some of the funds" necessary for the development of the Columbia river basin and other projects.

This is the home town of Senator Glenn Taylor, running for vice president on Henry Wallace's third party ticket.

As the President pushed westward with his preconvention campaign his aides sought to strengthen their advance planning to assure maximum crowds of his appearances.

They attributed the size of Saturday night's crowd of 2,000 in Omaha's 10,000-seat Ak-Sar-Ben coliseum on failure of a local arrangements committee to give full notice that the general public was invited.

This explanation also was offered by Coliseum Manager J. J. Isaacson at the time of Mr. Truman's arrival for his farm policy speech. The address was under auspices of the 35th division, but not limited to its members.

Speaks at Cheyenne

Thousands of westerners greeted the President in a series of platform appearances yesterday and upwards of 5,000 saw him at Cheyenne, Wyo., where he spoke last night from the steps of the executive mansion with Democratic Governors Lester Hunt of Wyoming and Lee Knous of Colorado.

The Omaha speech, ending a day when the President marched in the 35th division reunion parade before a crowd estimated by police at 150,000 to 165,000, brought an anti-Truman statement from William Ritchie, state Democratic chairman.

Ritchie announced he will not support the President for another term.

Gives Reason

"After what happened yesterday," Ritchie said, "I have reluctantly come to the conclusion that to achieve success in the fall election the Democratic party needs a new nominee for president, and I expect to vote for some Jeffersonian Democrat for that nomination."

He blamed the President's advisors and "the inability of Mr. Truman to recognize that he is not being wisely advised."

There was no comment from presidential press Secretary Charles G. Ross on Ritchie's statement. Nor would Ross give any official reaction to the size of the Omaha audience.

POWERS DRAFT PLAN RUSSIANS DO NOT FAVOR

Proposal for Separate Western German Nation Announced by Conference.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 7—In the face of certain Russian opposition, the western powers announced today a five-point proposal for creating a separate, federal government in western Germany.

At the same time they revealed new measures to block any future German aggression.

The agreements, results of a six-power western nation conference which ended at London a week ago, were announced simultaneously here and in Europe.

They are subject to formal acceptance by the governments of the United States, Britain, France and the Low Countries and a stiff fight over them is expected at Paris.

The five steps projected for creating a federal German government are based on the expressed belief that the German people themselves should take maximum responsibility for each step.

The steps include an authorization meeting of the allied military chiefs and German heads of each Western German state, election of delegates to a constituent assembly, drafting of a constitution by the assembly, ratification of the constitution by the German people, and consideration of needed revisions in German state boundaries.

Seek French Acceptance

It reportedly was to meet French security fears and ease French acceptance of steps to fit western Germany into European reconstruction that the three western powers laid down their most comprehensive agreement thus far projected for keeping Germany under control.

Another victory for the French was contained in an agreement for an international control of the Ruhr "in which United States, United Kingdom, France, Benelux countries and Germany would participate, and which does not involve the political separation of the Ruhr area from Germany."

"It does, however, contemplate control of distribution of coal, coke and steel of the Ruhr," the communique continued.

"In order that on the one hand industrial concentration in that area shall not become an instrument of aggression and on the other will be able to make its contribution to all countries participating in a European cooperative economic program, including, of course, Germany itself."

Aim at Peace Assurance

On security, the official statement reported this general provision:

"The United States, the United Kingdom and French delegates reiterated the firm views of their governments that there could not be any general withdrawal of their forces from Germany until the peace of Europe is secured and without prior consultation.

"During this period there should be no general withdrawal of the forces of occupation of the United States, France or the United Kingdom without prior consultation. It was further recommended that the governments concerned should consult if any of them should consider that there was a danger of resurgents of German military power, or of the adoption by Germany of a policy of aggression."

The conference also agreed that the military governors of the western zones should create a military security board to assure continued disarmament and demilitarization in Germany.

Plan for Agreements

Further, it was agreed that prior to any general withdrawal of occupation forces "agreements will be reached among the governments concerned with respect to necessary measures of demilitarization, disarmament and control of industry and with respect to occupation of key areas." Likewise, the conference decided there should be a post-occupation inspection system to keep Germany disarmed.

The communique on the London conference was issued by the state department at the unusually early hour of 5 a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

ALVIS APPOINTED OHIO PRISON WARDEN

By International News Service

COLUMBUS, June 7—Ralph W. Alvis, acting warden of Ohio penitentiary since Feb. 24, was designated permanent head of the institution today.

In announcing the appointment, State Welfare Director Charles L. Sherwood said he was "deeply pleased" with the way Alvis has carried out the penitentiary assignment.

Alvis was appointed acting warden when Gen. Frank D. Henderson resigned in February.

At that time, Alvis was given a free hand to make any changes he found necessary.

Alvis was assistant superintendent of the London prison farm prior to assuming the penitentiary post. He also served as wartime-acting superintendent of the Boys' Industrial school at Lancaster.

The new warden, who is 44, was a star athlete at West Virginia Wesleyan university. He is a native of Sebring, O.

Alvis joined the Ohio Highway patrol when it was first organized in 1933. During 12 years with the patrol, he rose to major-inspector and second in command of the organization.

ARABS GIVEN PEACE OFFER

Count Bernadotte Acts, But End of Fighting Not Expected This Week.

By The Associated Press

CAIRO, June 7—Count Folke Bernadotte handed to six Arab nations today his proposal for a starting time and conditions of the four-week armistice in Palestine.

Peace appeared unlikely during this week, however. Palace sources in Amman, Trans-Jordan, said the Arab League political committee will not meet before Saturday. It is the kingpin of the Arab effort in the Holy Land.

Fighting continued. The Jews claimed successes south of Tel Aviv, and to the northeast around the Arabs' Tulkarm-Jenin-Nablus triangle. The Syrian army became active on the north border of Palestine and the Saudi Arabians were declared to have placed a considerable force with tanks and armor in Palestine alongside the Egyptians.

Bernadotte, mediator for the United Nations, has been empowered to fix the starting time of the truce, to which both sides have agreed.

Bernadotte gave his proposals to the foreign minister of Egypt, the ministers of Saudi Arabia and Trans-Jordan and the charge D'Affaires of Syria, Lebanon and Iraq. The seventh state arrayed against Israel is tiny Yemen. All seven belong to the Arab league. The diplomats were asked to forward the terms to their governments.

All sources declined to give a clue to the grave-faced mediator's interpretation.

SENATE VOTES ON RACE ISSUE IN DRAFT

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 7—The senate, pressing toward action on draft legislation, voted down today a proposal to forbid race segregation in the armed services. The roll call was 47 to 7.

The vote was not a direct test on how the senate feels about race segregation. Senate leaders were confronted with the prospect of a filibuster from southerners if the proposal was not sidetracked.

They are anxious to get final action on the draft measure which, as it stands, leaves to the department of defense the question whether the Army, Navy and Air Force are to have units of mixed races.

Senator Langer (R-ND) offered an amendment to prohibit discrimination or segregation because of race, color or religion in assignments or induction into the armed services.

It was tabled on a motion by Chairman Gurney (R-SD) of the armed services committee. The motion was not debatable.

This was the first test on a set of seven Langer amendments covering most of President Truman's "civil rights" measures such as anti-lynch, anti-poll tax and anti-segregation.

Some senators who favor the civil rights program opposed Langer's amendments. They said that the military manpower bill is not the place to fight for such issues.

* * *

WASHINGTON, June 7—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) voted with the majority today to kill a proposal by Senator Langer (R-ND) to write into the draft bill a ban on race discrimination in inductions and assignments in the armed forces. Senator Bricker (R-Ohio) was not recorded as voting.

Bricker Named To Head Ohio GOP Delegation

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., June 7—Ohio Republicans, most of whom hope to provide the next president of the United States, fielded a team with this backfield today:

U. S. Senator John W. Bricker, Gov. Thomas J. Herbert, congressman Clarence J. Brown of Blanchester and Republican State Chairman Fred H. Johnson of Zanesville.

The quartet was chosen yesterday to carry the ball when the state's 53 delegates go to the Republican national convention at Philadelphia, June 21. Forty-four of them are pledged to Senator Robert A. Taft for president; nine to Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota.

How They Will Perform

Here are the specific duties of the four:

Bricker — Chairman of the delegation and designated to make the speech which will submit Taft's name for the presidential nomination.

Herbert — Vice-chairman but in reality co-chairman. He must handle the Ohio delegates while Bricker does missionary work among delegations from other states.

Brown—Taft's convention floor manager.

Johnson — Delegation secretary and assistant Taft floor manager, in charge of midwestern states.

They were formally selected for the jobs at an organization meeting of convention delegates, who were elected in the May 4 primary.

Congressman Brown, Republican national committeeman who called the meeting, said "harmony prevailed" among the 40 delegates present and that the selections were unanimous.

The five Stassen delegates in attendance abstained from voting.

The delegation also reelected Brown and Mrs. Katharine Kennedy Brown of Dayton to the Republican national committee and made the following convention committee assignments:

Ed D. Schorr of Cincinnati, former Republican state chairman, credentials;

Governor Herbert and Miss Margaret E. Baker of Springfield, resolutions;

Congresswoman Frances P. Bolton of Cleveland, permanent organization;

Congressman Bender, rules and order of business;

John E. Galvin of Lima, committee to notify presidential nominee of his nomination, and

To Notify Vice President

William Schneider of Columbus, Franklin county Republican chairman, committee to notify vice presidential nominee of his nomination. Former Gov. Myers Y. Cooper of Cincinnati was named an honorary vice - chairman of the convention.

Bricker, who was the Republican vice presidential nominee in 1944, was nominated for chairman by Governor Herbert. Then, Congressman Brown nominated Herbert for vice chairman.

Before the meeting both Bricker and Herbert had been mentioned for the chairmanship.

Congressman Brown reiterated before the delegates his belief that Taft would receive more votes than any other candidate on the first convention ballot.

He said more than 300 votes had been pledged to Taft. A total of 548 is required for the presidential nomination.

The delegates were requested to be in Philadelphia by Sunday morning, June 20. They will be quartered in the Benjamin Franklin hotel, headquarters of the Taft-for-President campaign.

U.S. OFFICERS TAKE PRISONER HELD HERE

Charges Filed in Toledo in Check Theft Case.

Charles Junior Mullett, 23, of West Center street, who was arrested by city police and held for federal officials since June 3 was removed from city prison Saturday afternoon by deputy U.S. marshals and taken to Lucas county jail in Toledo where charges of theft of mail and forging and cashing a government check were filed against him by R. C. Alexander, Marion postal inspector. Mr. Alexander said today Mullett would be brought before a U.S. commissioner later this week to file a plea on charges against him.

Mullett was arrested at 12:38 p. m. June 3 by city police on information furnished by William Phelps, 10, of 212 Patten street and Lee Mathers, 10, of 254 Patten street. The boys told police Mullett forced young Phelps to sign the name Charles O. Brady to an internal revenue refund check made out to Charles O. Brady of West Center street, who lived in a flat over the one occupied by Mullett.

Postal authorities charge Mullett stole the check from Brady's mailbox. City Police Captain E. C. Macken said Mullett admitted the theft under questioning. Mullett was a Pennsylvania railroad track worker at the time of his arrest.

International Raises Farm Tractor Prices

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, June 7—International Harvester Co. today advanced prices from 2.5 to 14.8 per cent on its wheel-type farm tractor. The average advance for the entire farm tractor line was placed at "less than 10 per cent."

"We had hoped that production costs might stabilize," the company said, "and we delayed these adjustments, therefore, until our margin of profit on the entire farm tractor line had declined below maximum levels, and we were actually in the red on several models."

The company said the increases are effective as of June 3.

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

I felt as if I were a prisoner receiving a sudden stay of sentence, and I knew that my husband understood my mood when he gave me a gamin grin as he held out his hands to Faith.

"Come along," he said, giving her his hand. "But wait!" He looked deferentially at my father. "Will you be around for awhile," he said. "If not, this young lady will want a good-by session, and some 'lovings' before you go."

"Faith's grandfather smiled at her.

"She'll get them," he promised, "but I'm not going just yet. Suppose I telephone your studio ten minutes before I have to leave and you bring her down, or I'll come up."

"You'll not stir from this room," I told him authoritatively. "Dicky and Faith will do the traveling."

"Does she swing the lash over your straining back like that?" my father asked with twinkling eyes.

"She not only swings it, she cuts me to ribbons," Dicky said gravely. "I'm always rubbing salt into my gashes—that's the best thing, you know."

"Oh-h Daddy, you're such a funny man!" Faith said, and he swept her a low bow with an imagined plumed hat, a gesture that always delights her.

"As long as you and Katie are in the offing," he said, "I can endure the captiousness of some other females I could mention."

He gave me a lofty glance, then turned to my father.

"Glad you understand the situation, Dad," he said. "It's a solace to me. Come along, Faith! We'll have our ears open for your telephone call."

"I am very proud of my son-in-law," my father said. "He is a most resourceful man."

I had seen the door of the bedroom open slightly, and was not surprised when Katharine came through it, closing it after her.

"How did you get out of it?" she asked. "I slid open the door in time only for the departure of your husband and your child."

"I didn't get out of it," I told her. "Dicky took over immediately."

"You missed something," my father said. "Better tell her the whole story."

I obeyed him, omitting no detail, and Katharine laughed heartily.

"What is Mary doing?" I asked when she had straightened her face and wiped her eyes.

"Throwing the fear of God into Noel," she said. "At least that was what she signaled me she was going to do when I was leaving. I already had stilled his fears about her, and Mary asked me to have you order another pot of hot coffee. They're coming in to finish their breakfast after a bit. I'll just tell them that Faith is out of the way."

She rose, went to the bedroom door and tapped. Mary called "Come in," and she opened it just enough to send her voice through it.

"Faith has gone with her father over to his studio," she said. "She won't be back for some time."

"'God's in His Heaven, all's right with the world,'" Mary caroled. Then she added a contrite: "I ought to be smacked for saying that about that darling little Faith. Tell Auntie Madge I didn't mean it, won't you?"

"I'll tell her," Katharine said.

"I've already heard her," I said on my way to the telephone to order the next pot of coffee. "And I'm not disturbed. Faith is perfectly safe and happy, and we certainly can get through with our 'unfinished business' more quickly without her."

Green Camp Board Raises Teachers' Pay

Special to The Star

GREEN CAMP, June 7 — Salary increases ranging from $5 to $350 yearly were granted teachers by the Green Camp board of education recently. The $350 increases were necessary to comply with the minimum wage schedule adopted by the board last October, based upon the teacher's qualifications and teaching experience.

Two-year contracts were sent Wayne H. Bloker, coach, Mrs. Melvina Kesler, music teacher, and Mrs. Eileen Kessler, English teacher.

George W. Rosebrough was re-employed as custodian for the year beginning July 1.

A letter from County Supt. D. T. Mills was read relating to the Campbell school district which has been consolidated with the local district. The clerk was authorized to enter into a contract with the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. to purchase a new stove for the school cafeteria.

NEW YORK — LOU STILLMAN [illegible]

[illegible]

Hal Boyle

[illegible] Stillman [illegible] watched more [illegible] pounds of boxing than any man in history. Perhaps 1,250,000 or more.

Seven days a week, [illegible] a day [illegible] under the [illegible] mus es [illegible] into [illegible] faces.

"I figure so [illegible] of the boxers than here," he said. "I've had all the champs — from Dempsey to Joe Louis."

About 75 fighters a day work out on the bags or keep the three rings busy. The boxers in the chips hire sparring partners. The old ones going down and the young ones coming up [illegible] boxing ea [illegible] their saves money.

STILLMAN PROVIDES only the gong, the rings, the punching bags and the showers. And maybe a bandage [illegible]. He doesn't charge by the [illegible]. The boxers pay $6 a month [illegible] a small locker, $10 a month for a room. Spectators fork out [illegible] bits a [illegible].

His life as tycoon of the open pore and nabob of the expanding bicep has conferred upon Lou a good-sized fortune, a [illegible] personality, and the weary eye of a philosopher [illegible]. His vocabulary has a [illegible] [illegible] pleasantly warm or murder [illegible].

[illegible] greets a bum or [illegible] with a [illegible] He also keeps a lengthening [illegible] list of boxing hangers-on. Every time they [illegible] the stairs to his gym he has them bounced down the stairs [illegible] giving balls.

"[illegible] a tough business," [illegible] said. "[illegible] there was a tough element in boxing who'd run over you if they could. You can't be kind to them. They think a politeness is weakness."

OCCASIONALLY UNPAID fights break [illegible] his gym between [illegible] managers, between managers and their fighters, and between fighters and fighters. The cause is usually [illegible] combustion arising from disputes concerning the dollar.

[illegible] enough to break up most fights. But he long ago [illegible] rule banning knives and guns.

"You'd be surprised at some of the well-known boxers I've had to take knives from," he said.

Lou says modern boxers are more intelligent and better educated than the [illegible] heroes of yesterday, but lack their stamina.

"The old-timers — fighters like Dempsey and Benny Leonard — really worked to get in condition. The kids today want to train with [illegible] in the gym and the other in the street."

LOU NO LONGER will have much to do with a muscle after working hours. He's tired of them. Doesn't care to see bouts often, and doesn't associate with the fight crowd. He also has given up his hobbies — horseback riding and oil painting — and recently quit taking piano lessons.

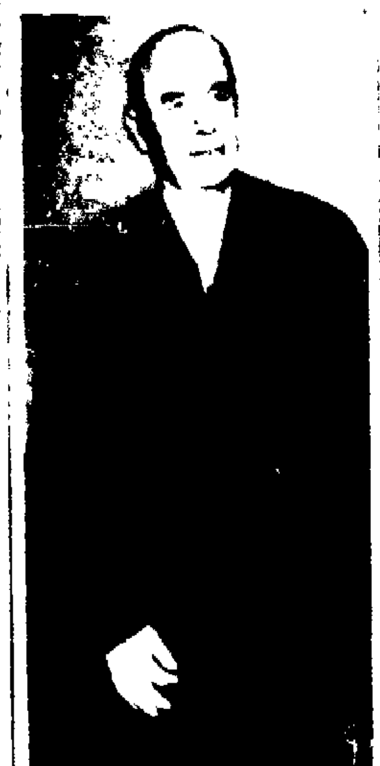

"Couldn't get along with the teacher," he said. "I wanted to learn to play tunes and she wanted me to learn to play scales."

Did he ever box himself? Lou looked around the gym forest of sweating arms, legs and bobbing heads.

"Think I'm crazy?"

ELIZABETH, PHILIP SEE ENGLISH DERBY. Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip are shown as they arrive at Epsom Downs, England, to witness the 169th running of the English derby. Sewing on projects followed the meeting.

WORK IS UNDER WAY ON SILVER ST. SCHOOL

Contractors Hope To Complete Job by First of Year.

Work is under way on the addition to the Silver Street school, Roy E. Young, Steward Construction company superintendent, said today.

Frank Webb, Steward company construction engineer, will be in charge of the $47,780 job, the superintendent reported.

Workmen were to commence excavation for footings today following completion of preliminary work which started Thursday, he said. A field office has been set up on the Scranton avenue side of the school grounds.

"We're aiming at completing the job by the first of the year and with that in mind we have, insofar as possible, tried to secure early commitment dates on delivery of materials," M. Young said.

The Steward company expects to employ about 25 men on the job, it was indicated.

A big factor in whether or not the addition will be ready for use by the winter term as hoped by the board of education will hinge on the availability of steel, the company reported.

"If we are held up along the way, chances are it will be late delivery on steel girders and the way the steel situation is now we're liable to be ready for them long before we get them," Mr. Young said.

CLEVELANDERS RETAIN GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

By The Associated Press

TOLEDO, O., June 7 — Clevelanders retained the Lower Lakes golf championship today despite a final-match [illegible] by Buffalo, N. Y., players 20½ to 15½.

The Buffalo outfit handed Cleveland its first loss yesterday in the three-day team event on the Country club course here. Detroit beat Toledo 2? to 1? in the other match of the round-robin tournament.

Final standings were: Cleveland 58, Buffalo 57, Detroit 53 and Toledo 47.

The 1949 lower lakes tournament will be played in Cleveland.

Tiny Fair Isle, north of Scotland, is famed for its sweater patterns, and as a step-off for migratory birds.

First-Class Travel Agent

White sidewall tires, as illustrated, available at extra cost.

Its name speaks for itself — ROADMASTER.

It's Buick's 144-horsepower greyhound that covers ground and grades with the effortless smoothness of a cruising cloud.

It's big — 18 feet from bumper to massive bumper — and spacious, and stacks up to a solid 4,400 pounds of trim roadweight to keep your ride true and steady.

Yet for all its brawny bigness, the Buick ROADMASTER has a power-to-weight ratio that means fewer pounds per horsepower.

So you find this handsome heavyweight spry and mighty like precious few other cars.

You take any road, any hill, any sudden need for speed with a swift smooth sureness that puts a song in your heart.

And you find this beauty's great Fireball engine not only tireless but practically throbless, too — for now it's Hi-Poised mounted for new smoothness.

You find this fashion-plate traveler not only superbly fitted with luxurious trim and finish but serenely quiet and restful, too — for now it's insulated against road noise by Sound-Sorber top lining, and isolated against vibration build-up by Vibra-Shielding.

You find this stunningly smart car not only feather-light in handling but incredibly level and buoyant in its soft ride — for here all-coil springing combines with extra-big, extra-soft tires and the industry's widest rims.

And if you add to this finest of fine automobiles the new engineering triumph called Dynaflow Drive,* you have a car like no other in all America — the only car in the land in which no gears shift as you drive.

Why not come visit us and look into it? Better yet — we'll take your order for one right now, with or without a car to trade.

*Optional at extra cost on Roadmaster models only.

BUICK alone has all these features

★ DYNAFLOW DRIVE (Optional, Roadmaster Series)
★ TAPER-THRU STYLING (Super and Roadmaster)

NASH, AUTO MAKER, DIES IN CALIF. AT 84

By The Associated Press

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., June 7 — Death has stilled the heart and hand of one of America's leading industrialists, Charles Warren Nash, 84.

Nash, who rose from an orphan farm boy to president of General Motors, succumbed at his home yesterday after a long illness. He had been a victim of heart disease for the last two years but remained active in the affairs of the Nash Motor Co., which he founded, until about six months ago.

Born in De Kalb county, Illinois, Nash was an orphan at six and was bound out under a guardianship court order to a farmer near Flushing, Mich., to work for his board and keep.

He quit farming in 1890, went to work for a carriage works that William C. Durant built into an auto manufacturing concern in Flint.

When Durant purchased the Buick Motor Co., he made Nash president and general manager. Two years later Nash was president of General Motors and a power in the industry, but he stepped out and formed his own company, building the first Nash in 1917.

AIR INQUIRY BOARD PROBES FATAL CRASH

By The United Press

DAYTON, June 7 — Wright field officials said today an air force board of inquiry is investigating Saturday's crash of the jet-powered YB-49 "Flying Wing" bomber but indicated it may be several days before anything definite is known.

Officers here said the plane, which had been veiled in military secrecy, did not send a distress message before it plunged into a remote area of the Muroc Calif. dry lake bed and burned.

The huge craft was torn to pieces and parts were hurled over a large area.

Wright Field authorities identified the five crew members killed as Maj. Don Forbes, Topeka, Kan., believed to be the pilot; Capt. Glen W. Edwards, Lincoln, Calif.; Lt. Edward Swindell, Virginia Beach, Va.; C. C. Leser, Bellemonte Park, N. J., and C. H. LaFountain, Hudson Falls, N. Y.

The jet propelled plane was designed for speeds in the 600-mile an hour range and was one of 15 heavy bombers ordered from the Northrop Aircraft Co.

Production of the other bombers will be continued despite the crash of the "Flying Wing," Wright Field officials said.

CLARIDON SOCIETY MEETS

The Claridon Ladies' Aid society held an all-day meeting Thursday, June 3, at the church. The time was spent in quilting and a potluck dinner was served at noon. Plans were made for an ice cream social to be held June 24 on the school house lawn. At the next meeting, July 1, the time will be spent in cleaning the church. Guests were Norma Burggraf and Judy Bauer.

Deafened Now Hear Whispers 5 Feet Away

Tests by the American Medical Association's Council on Physical Medicine show that science has now enabled deafened people to hear faint sounds, to easily understand whispers from 5 feet away, aided by a tiny hearing device so light you hardly know you are wearing it. With it thousands now enjoy music, sermons and friendly companionship. Finger tip controls let you adjust it instantly to changing sound conditions. No separate battery pack, wires or harness bulge to weigh you down. The makers of Beltone, Dept. 25, 1450 W. 19th St., Chicago 8, Ill., are so proud of their achievement that they will gladly send you a free descriptive booklet and explain how you may test this remarkable device in your own home without risking a penny. Accomplishment

THERE were, according to Winston Churchill speaking in the house of commons, 4,000 ships, several thousand smaller craft and at least 11,000 first-line planes. The Germans were taken by surprise. The long-awaited invasion of the continent when it finally happened was such a gigantic operation that its success was assured from the outset.

The beachheads were expanded rapidly. Losses, relative to the number of troops involved in the greatest seaborne invasion in history, were unexpectedly small. The Atlantic wall was broken. Simultaneously, Allied troops in Italy began to advance. For the first time since September, 1939, there ceased to be a menace of Nazi domination. Gen. Eisenhower told the invaders that their accomplishments in the first seven days were beyond his brightest hopes.

Morale soared. The impossible had been made possible. The end of the war was in sight—not yet within reach but in sight.

Millions were proud of the accomplishments they knew would be one of the unforgettable landmarks of the 20th century. They dared to look ahead to even greater accomplishments growing out of the forthcoming defeat of Germany and Japan—to international cooperation, an era of good will, even to universal and permanent peace. Surely these would not be too much for men to attain if they would defeat the strongest combination of military powers in modern times.

But the accomplishment that came to fruition on June 6, 1944, was not to be the beginning of greater things. Men's minds were not ready for the greater things. In Palestine, on June 6, 1948, war was raging. In the capitals of the world there was suspicion. It surely would not be too long until the victors fell to fighting among themselves. They already were bickering, just as they bickered after World War I, thereby making World War II a certainty.

How Collective Can Bargaining Be?

TWO things about negotiations to keep the United States from being crippled by a coal strike are apparent at this stage of the game.

One is the absurdity of the negotiations being kept open by a succession of court orders from Judge T. Alan Goldsborough.

The other is the absurdity of collective bargaining for hundreds of thousands of citizens and hundreds of employers being narrowed down to the hands of a few men whose decisions—"in a smoke-filled room"—have more effect on public welfare than most of the decisions of the United States congress.

In both respects the same question must come to the mind of the observer: is this what collective bargaining was intended to be? Is this what labor unions fought for? How collective can bargaining be without ceasing to represent anything but the judgment of a few individuals?

Judge Goldsborough's injunction has kept negotiations open, but it does not guarantee anything more than the presence of the negotiators. There is no assurance that they will "bargain" in good faith. The record suggests the contrary. It suggests that John L. Lewis is interested chiefly in shutting out the southern operators, then forcing the southerners to fall into line. This may be bargaining, but it looks more like industrial warfare.

Old Platforms for Sale

EACH major party will prepare a platform for its campaign this year. When the result is unveiled at the conventions there will be the same buzz of favorable and unfavorable comment that attends the unveiling of a new statue—and there the resemblance will end.

The new statue remains on view, but political platforms don't. They are filed and forgotten. With rare exceptions, they say nothing worth remembering. They are masterpieces of double-talk and commitments with build-in loopholes. At their best they reflect the art of compromise which is the secret of popular government, and at their worst they reflect what happens to politicians who practice the art of compromise so diligently they lose their individual integrity.

Some Republicans, filled with admiration for the short platforms composed of generalities that the Democratic party used from 1932 to 1944 want their party to adopt the same style. Others, suspecting that the short platforms were that way because the New Deal coalition agreed within its own ranks on scarcely anything, want the Republican platform to be long and carefully detailed; they want to pin down every issue that the opposition might like to avoid. It is assumed that the Democratic platform again will be short by necessity. About the only thing left that Democrats can agree on any more is the desirability of being in power—and many of them can't even agree on that if it means voting for President Truman.

Still as good as new is the platform of 1932, one of the finest things of its kind ever produced. The Democrats never used it; they got preoccupied with making over the United States to suit the New Dealers. Sixteen years later they're still preoccupied with that futile project.

Scanning the Record

By George E. Sokolsky

From Norway to Home on the Range.

WE DROVE through Montana, th[illegible] out of Yellowstone National park for another hundred miles, more or less, through snow-capped mountains, past herds of antelope, by multi-hued pheasants, until we reached the ranch of Ole Fallon, member of the Montana legislature. His wife, Christina, had prepared a glorious dinner for us, cooked as no fancy restaurant would even know how to prepare food for fastidious farmers.

SOKOLSKY

And table was set in the kitchen where the aroma of homemade rolls, of cream gravy and braised chicken added zest to the appetites of hungry tourists. It was more like a harvest-time table, heavy-laden with good things to eat, with homemade pot-cheese, and homemade grape jelly, and preserved cranberries.

Ole is a typical rancher who owns about 1,200 acres, considered not too large in those parts. He has paid for his land, for his cattle, for his sheep. He owes no one anything. He, like most ranchers in those parts, has learned much from the years of drought. He has learned not to owe anybody anything, therefore, there will be no one to take from him the fruits of his labor, his land and his cattle. That he learned from the bad years of the dust bowl, when rain did not fall and the grass did not grow, and the cattle died on the range and the banks foreclosed the mortgages.

Not Dependent on Government

He also learned something in the New Deal days. He learned that the government talks bigger than it does; that so-called experts often do not understand more than books can tell them; that government aid is no substitute for experience, hard work and common sense. I came upon Ole while he was engaged preparing his irrigation ditches, and discovered that a good farmer does his own irrigating and does not depend upon government and all its rules and regulations.

I also learned from Ole that a man who is not a good rancher is not liked as a candidate for public office. We were discussing candidates and he made the point that a man who does not winter his cattle properly and does not protect his neighbors by mending his fences cannot be relied upon. And of course that is logical. If a man does not know how to live, how can he do the nation's business?

He Evaded the Cities

Now, Ole is a Norwegian immigrant as is his wife, Christina. They came to this country seeking work and opportunity, which they found here. They did not settle in crowded cities, in the strange ghettos where European tongues are retained and professionals earn their livings by keeping alive ancient grudges. They went to live among Americans in distant places, near tiny villages, where the dignity of person is maintained as an individual right and where the center of society is not some complex social organism artificially created in the maelstroms of big cities but is in the family husband, wife and children laboring and living together. That is the American tradition. It is the tradition of western civilization.

Dignity of Independence

Ole and his family were Americanized neither by the synthesis of artificial pressures nor are they a product of the melting pot. They have been fused into American life until they have become as much American as the snow-capped Rockies in whose shadows their cattle and sheep roam. They are not peasants, nor driven nomads who range from state to state looking for seasonal work and newer relief laws. They have the dignity of landowners and land-workers who can look into the rising sun and be unafraid. And they rear their children that way in American colleges.

And so Ole works his land and his neighbors send him to the state legislature, as they have sent his close friends, Zale Ecton, to the United States senate, and Wesley A. D'Ewart, to the house of representatives. Working farmers and ranchers these, who, having lived by the soil of America, love it and understand it. It is their soil, it is their opportunity and their hope for their children. They have no affiliations with what they left behind them in Europe because they have sunk their roots deep in our land which they have made their own by work.

Big Decision Faces Kremlin

By Walter Lippmann

WITH American rearmament assured by decisive majorities in Congress, a new phase in our relations with the Soviet Union is beginning. The critical question is how the Kremlin will react to the prospect with which, as a direct consequence of the coup d'etat in Czechoslovakia, it is now confronted.

LIPPMANN

The meaning of what has happened here between March and June must be plain—there are many indications that it is plain—to Stalin and the Russian general staff, even if it is not yet fully understood by all the members of the politburo. As of March this country was already capable of striking severe blows inside the Soviet Union. But it has not mobilized the reserves it has in its stockpiles, nor taken the measures to replenish and enlarge its reserves for a sustained and increasingly severe assault. Measures have now been adopted, assuming as we may that Congress also will vote that draft, which means that month by month the American striking force will grow more powerful.

Thus month by month the balance of military power will become more and more unfavorable to the Soviet Union. For while the Red Army is still by all odds the most powerful military force in the Eurasian continent, it cannot advance anywhere without provoking a war with the United States. For such a war the time required by this country to mobilize for severe reprisals is being reduced, the power to continue and intensify the reprisals is being increased.

Therefore, time being against them, if the rulers of Russia intend to react to the situation by military measures, they will not wait until American mobilization and rearmament are completed. All military power is relative, and in the present situation the Red Army as an instrument for the conquest or domination of Europe is deteriorating. It is still capable of overrunning the nearby countries of western Europe and the Middle East, but the cost of such an adventure is certain, is known, and is prohibitive. For the Red Army is incapable of defending Russian territory against destructive attack, and it is altogether impotent for a serious attack against the continental United States.

For these reasons, which I believe are controlling and compelling, it is in the highest degree probable that the so-called "peace offensive" is not mere propaganda, that is to say, exclusively an attempt to confuse and divert public opinion in Europe and America. No doubt the Kremlin would be delighted if it could cause us to suspend rearmament and lost interest in the European Recovery Program. But Stalin is no fool, and never has been, and however twisted and distorted may be the political intelligence he receives, the adoption of the American military program is a fact which he and his military advisers are bound to understand.

It is, therefore, highly probable that the peace offensive is primarily an attempt to bargain—to give up as little as possible and to get in return as much as possible. In all bargaining of this kind there is, of course, insincerity, bluff and propaganda. A man who offers a hundred dollars in a horse trade, hoping to get the horse for a hundred and twenty-five, though he is prepared to give [illegible] hundred and fifty, is no doubt insincere, is bluffing, is conducting propaganda. But if he really wants the horse, he is not merely a propagandist, he is a horse trader.

Decision in Kremlin

Now in my view the real question is not whether the peace offensive is propaganda. It is whether the Kremlin has decided that it must have peace or that it must risk a war. The answer to that question will not be found by studying the writings of Marx, Lenin and Stalin, or by elaborating theories about the Soviet mentality. The answer will be given [illegible] by events which will take place within the next ten months, almost certainly within the next year.

If the owners of the Soviets do not [illegible] to negotiate a peace settlement, they will take overt military action in the fairly near future to counteract the American military program. If they do not act, if the Red Army continues to stand still while American military power mounts, then it will mean that the Kremlin has decided to negotiate a modus vivendi, making the best bargain it can get.

Just a Minute

By Jack Tarver

By Tradition and Convention

Norman Thomas has been given the presidential nomination of the Socialist party.

Yes, again.

If practice makes perfect, Mr. Thomas is the ideal candidate. Norman was running long before Nixon.

His nomination is as regular a quadrennial occurrence as the 29th of February.

Norman heard in his youth that every American boy can grow up to be president and he wants to be sure his name is on the ballot when his turn comes.

The Socialist party should appeal to economy-minded. They can use their "Thomas for President" buttons until they wear away.

Mr. Thomas polled nearly a million votes at one time, but his total has been declining in the last three elections. This trend is expected to continue this year since with Wallace in the field Thomas is assured only of the support of the [illegible] conservative [illegible].

Not Forgetting Our Own

From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Tuesday, June 7, 1938. Approximately $20,000,000 in unemployment compensation benefits were to be paid to unemployed workers in Ohio during the first 16 weeks of 1939, it was announced by Walter J. Mackey, employes' representative on the Ohio unemployment compensation commission.

Announcement of the election of Dr. O. M. Young as president of the Rotary club was made at the club's weekly luncheon at Hotel Harding.

The first of a series of luncheons and bridge parties which were to be a part of the activities at the Marion Country club was held. Hostesses were Mrs. L. A. Axe, chairman, Mrs. F. E. Guthery, Mrs. J. A. Schoeter, Mrs. J. J. Divney, Mrs. Pat Dwyer, Mrs. George E. Frank, Mrs. J. C. Woods and Mrs. Earl T. Smart.

More than 1,200 lodge members from Marion and six nearby counties were present at the outdoor ice cream festival held at Waldo by Whetstone Lodge No. 718, Knights of Pythias. It was estimated that 40 of the 44 lodges in Marion county and the six surrounding counties were represented.

W. T. Gulliford, began his term as president of the board of trustees of the Marion County Children's home. Taking office with him were G. E. Waddell, vice president and Elmer Barkley, superintendent.

Earl Augenstein of Bethlehem road was chosen president of the Marion County Junior Fair board at a meeting held in the office of County Agent S. L. Anderson.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Thursday, June 7, 1928. John J. Curtis, chief of the fire department at Sandusky, was elected president of the Ohio Association of Fire Chiefs in the closing session of the eleventh annual convention held here. He succeeded Chief T. J. McFarland, who was president during the preceding year.

Miss Lucille Hunt arrived home from Green Castle, Ind. where she was a student at DePauw university, to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Hunt of Delaware avenue.

Richard Blazer returned to his home in LaRue after a visit of several days with his cousins, Tom and Joseph Miller of Reed avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. James O'Dowd and daughter Anna Marie of Spencer street attended graduation exercises at Bowling Green State Normal school as guests of Miss Virginia O'Dowd.

The country club season was opened with a party program consisting of twilight golf, buffet supper at 6:30 and an evening of bridge with 81 members attending. Winners in twilight golf were Mrs. Wilfred Schaffner and Dan LaMarche and awards at cards were won by Mrs. Dan LaMarche and M. C. O'Brien.

Trouble in July

By Stewart Alsop

BERLIN

THIS is a moment of relaxation of tension in Europe, such as Europe and the world briefly enjoyed in January and February. The question is whether this present slackening of tension will end as the last one did, in something comparable to the Czech crisis and the threat to Scandinavia. That question is likely to be answered here, in this grim city, from which the Soviets desire to expel the Western powers.

ALSOP

July is most often mentioned here as the time of decision when all the preliminary Soviet pushing and pressuring will mount to some sort of climax. If the Soviets decide to go the whole hog, they are expected to cut the food, fuel and power supply lines of the Western sectors of Berlin which run through their zone. It is unthinkable for the British, French and Americans to remain here without providing the means of life for the hundreds of thousands of Germans in their sectors of the city. Therefore, if the Russians go the whole hog, the Western powers will have no choice except to get out, or to force the Soviets to restore the supply lines to operation.

No one is certain of Soviet intentions, but the worst is considered quite likely to happen (as it so often tends to do). Thus the wisest choice to make in the circumstances outlined above is a topic of almost feverish discussion at all levels of the Western command, from General Lucius D. Clay and Sir Brian Robertson downward. No policy has as yet been adopted in advance; nor can it be, until directives are secured from London, Paris and Washington, since this is a matter involving peace or war. But it is possible to say at least that if the Soviets end by deciding to go all the way, the Western powers will respond with very great firmness.

Two Classes

The responses, considered broadly, fall into two classes. The first, which finds more advocates among the French and British than among the Americans, may be called the response by all measures short of war. Those who advocate this course are chiefly influenced by the total military unreadiness of western Europe.

If this course is chosen, the Western powers will leave Berlin if their supply lines are cut, pointing out to the Germans meanwhile that the Soviets are using German misery as an instrument of policy. Simultaneously, the Soviet Union will be forced out of the United Nations for flagrant breach of treaties and international agreements. Diplomatic connections between the Soviets and the West will be largely severed. Soviet and satellite ships will be denied the use of Western ports. Over-all, the Soviet Union and sphere will be put in Coventry, while a constant, vigilant guard is posted all around it.

Yet even those who advocate this course (in itself not exactly pacific) admit that evacuation of Berlin would be a catastrophic defeat for the West. With Berlin, the traditional capital of Germany, in their hands, the Soviets would have the ideal set-up for their campaign to win Germany by plugging revived German nationalism. The old maxim is much quoted here: "Lose Berlin, and you lose Germany; lose Germany and you lose Europe; lose Europe and you lose the world."

Another Consideration

Quite aside from power politics, there is also the future of the hundreds of thousands of anti-Communist Berliners to consider. They have shown courage. They have relied on Western promises to remain in Berlin. Evacuation of Berlin would instantly result in thousands of the bravest of them being stood up against the nearest wall and shot. Permitting friends to be made examples of in this manner, besides being morally indefensible, has an unfortunately discouraging effect on friends elsewhere.

Therefore, many of those who canvass the problem here in Berlin strongly favor something bolder than mere condemnation of the Soviet Union to a sort of international Coventry. This bolder course could take two forms. Paratroopers could be dispatched to re-open the supply lines, trucks could be sent along the Autobahn to Berlin with armed guards on board, ready to fire. The Soviets could then choose between shooting, or backing down with public humiliation. Or more cannily, the Western powers can dispatch an ultimatum to Moscow, threatening the use of force to reopen the supply lines unless the Soviets have reversed themselves by a specified date.

Special Arrangements

By TRUMAN TWILL

It says in the paper that a store engineer is working on a plan to eliminate traffic jams in supermarkets. His big idea is to sort out the customers according to the size of their purchases. There'd be an express lane for those who wanted to get out in a hurry with a loaf of bread for supper, a special lane for customers with more than one but not more than 10 packages, and a freight lane for customers laying in a week's supply of groceries.

When the engineer gets that figured, there's still the problem of sorting out customers in banks so the little fellow who has galloped in to cash his weekly pay check doesn't get jammed in behind the proprietor of a bingo game, deeply involved in hiding his financial tracks from the Internal Revenue Bureau.

And when he gets that figured out, there's still the problem of separating the little man who wants to know where to wash his hands from fidgeting in the same line as the information booth as the king-size [illegible] man who needs to know something important, such as where to find the general manager.

And when he gets that one settled, there's still the problem of what to do with Frantic Frank, the bus [illegible] never gets anything straight and has to go over every line twice. There should be a separate place where Frank can be taught [illegible] and disposed of without [illegible]

A NUPTIAL high mass at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning in St. Mary Catholic church solemnized the marriage of Miss Virginia Helen Bianchi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bianchi, of 263 North Prospect street, and Alden A. Wintersteller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Wintersteller of Huron. Very Rev. William J. [illegible]erman, V.F., pastor, read the ceremony and Rosario's "Mass of the Holy Rosary" was sung by St. Mary choir with Miss Rosalie M[illegible] at the organ. During the mass "Ave Maria" Franck and the [illegible] "On This Day O Beautiful Mother," were sung. Decorations in the chancel were gold altar vases filled with white gladioli. The day also marked the forty-first wedding anniversary of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Bianchi.

MRS. A. A. WINTERSTELLER

A gown of white chiffon over satin was worn by the bride who was given in marriage by her father. Tiny white satin buttons extended down the back of the bodice, made with a modified bertha neckline, outlined with lace, and the long sleeves ended in points at the hands. Two tiers of matching lace edged the hooped skirt which was gathered in scallops and extended into a deep train. Her veil of bridal illusion was edged with ruching and was held with a tiara of lace and lilies of the valley. She wore the bridegroom's gifts, a strand of pearls and white gold wrist watch and carried a bouquet of gardenias centered with an orchid.

Miss Maureen Ann Fout of Lorain, a niece of the bride, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Josephine McKinney and Miss Donna Mae Emerson of Delaware, and Nancy Bianchi of Galion was the junior bridesmaid. Miss Fout's dress of yellow chiffon and satin was made similar to the bride's. The hooped overskirt was edged in lace matching the edge of her yellow chiffon headdress held with an ornament of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was yellow carnations with a blue maline frill. The bridesmaids' gowns were in the same style as that worn by the maid of honor and were in blue with matching headdress. Their flowers were Colonial bouquets of blue carnations edged with yellow maline. The junior bridesmaid, a cousin of the bride, wore a gown of blue chiffon and lace with matching headdress and carried a bouquet identical with those of the bridesmaids. Her handkerchief and locket were gifts from the bride who presented her other attendants with matching lace handkerchiefs and rhinestone bracelets. All the attendants wore lace-edged mitts matching their gowns.

Robert C. Wintersteller, brother of the bridegroom was his best man and ushers were Gene Bianchi, brother of the bride and Charles R. Dunn. Classmates of the bride and bridegroom served in the sanctuary. They were J. Gray, Daniel M[illegible], Paul Ring and Joseph Wilmer.

The bride's mother was costumed in a blue print crepe dress with which she wore white accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a pearl gray shadow sheer costume with pink and gray accessories. Both wore gardenia corsages.

The wedding breakfast was at Hotel Harding where covers were placed for 80 guests. The table arranged in the ballroom, had centerpieces of blue and yellow garden flowers and completing the decorations were garlands of huckleberry foliage and [illegible] [illegible]. In the afternoon [illegible] the bride's parents entertained with a reception for 200 guests at Columbian hall. Assisting were Mrs. Maurice A. Fout of Lorain and Mrs. Robert S. Hiss, sister of the bride. The appointments were in yellow and blue and there was a four-tiered wedding cake.

When the couple left on a wedding trip the bride was wearing a three-piece kelly green gabardine suit with white spectator accessories. Upon their return they will be at home at 181 Grosvenor street, Athens.

Both Mr. Wintersteller and his bride were graduated from St. Mary Parochial High school with the class of 1944. Mrs. Wintersteller has been employed in the Marion zone office of the Internal Revenue department. The bridegroom served with the Commander Seventh Fleet in the South Pacific and the China Areas during World War II. He is now enrolled as a student at Ohio university.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wintersteller of Huron, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice A. Fout, Richard and Timothy Fout of Lorain, Mrs. Eva Bianchi, Mrs. Paul Bianchi Jr., Mrs. Theresa Emerson, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Flavin of Delaware, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bianchi and son Bobby of Galion, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph A. Wintersteller, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tuohey and Kathleen Tuohey, Mrs. Anna Wilson, Miss Hilda Dietrich, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice McGory, Mr. and Mrs. Aldon Voight of Sandusky; Reno Bianchi of Delphos; Miss Rosemary Carinazzi of Urbana; Robert Andrieni of Bucyrus; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Staker, Miss Bonnie Staker, Mrs. Glen W. Morrison of Zanesville, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roeder, George, Charles Jr., Helen and Virginia Roeder, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bores and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Martin of Monroeville, Mrs. Henry Sidell of Willard, Mrs. Edith Nardini, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Benedetti, Mr. and Mrs. William Sullivan of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. H. The rehearsal dinner at [illegible]wood Inn was given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert H[illegible]. Favors were crystal ash trays and the bride presented Miss Bianchi and her fiance a gift of crystal. At this time Miss Bianchi presented her gifts to the attendants and Mr. Wintersteller gave the best man and ushers identical ties and tie clasps. Garden flowers were used to carry out a decorative theme.

Mrs. Viola Hardin of LaRue is announcing the approaching marriage of her daughter, Helen Jeanette and Frank F. Bower, son of Robert Bower of New Bloomington. The wedding will be an event of June 27 at the Methodist church in LaRue where the custom of open church will be observed. Miss Hardin is a secretary in the office at the Marion Power Shovel Co. and her fiance is engaged in farming.

Mrs. Charles Winfield was a guest when Mrs. Fred Saull entertained the Friendship Euchre club Tuesday evening at her home on North Greenwood street. Mrs. Jessie Beeman received an award for high score and Mrs. Bertha Vroman was consoled. Mrs. Lida Drumm was presented the floating award.

Miss Jo Ann McCurdy entertained with a miscellaneous shower complimenting Miss Patricia Ballinger, Wednesday evening at her home at 290 Oak street. Miss Ballinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Ballinger of 593 Universal avenue, will be married to Edward Randolph of Bucyrus, Sunday, June 27 at the home of her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Chambers of Columbus.

The shower gifts were found by the honor guest in a large basket decorated in her colors of navy and white. A contest featured her love story. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Wayne McCurdy, Mrs. Herman Anspaugh, Mrs. Bertha Cornin and Mrs. Lawrence Storrick. Guests included Mrs. [illegible] Wilhelm, Miss M[illegible], Miss Florence Hayman, Miss [illegible] Hartsook, Miss [illegible] Keeran, Miss [illegible] Baker, Miss [illegible] Baker, Miss Delores Jackson, Miss Wanna Lingrel, Miss Eleanor Daniels, Miss Wanda Monsbarger, Miss Betty Morris, Miss Josephine Fury, Miss Ireanea Norris, Miss Vicky Arnold, Miss Mercie Longstone, Mrs. Orias Wetzel, Mrs. Verna Busier, Mrs. Carl Lytle, Mrs. M. K. Ballinger and Miss Louise Ballinger.

The Cl[illegible] club held its last meeting of the year Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Merritt K. Marshall on Girard avenue, with Mrs. Don Patton serving as assistant hostess.

Mrs. D. H. Weber, new president, presided for the meeting and gave a report of a recent board meeting of the Child Conservation League. Mrs. R. Carskadden reported that a total of $22.01 had been made from the traveling basket. Mrs. John Shannon was welcomed into the club as a new member, and Mrs. Lawson Manring of Marion was a guest. A special award was won by Mrs. Ivan Barnhart.

For the program, Mrs. C. R. Pennisten presented a paper, "Music for Children," which was prepared by Mrs. W. G. McNeal. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Charles Keck was cohostess when Mrs. Thomas B. Koon entertained the Merry Euchre club Wednesday evening at her home at 901 Congress street. Awards in cards were won by Mrs. Helen Bucks, Mrs. Eugene Corrigan and Mrs. Keck. Mrs. Paul Hanning was a guest.

Mo[illegible] of [illegible] street, are announcing the marriage of their daughter [illegible] to Robert Wa[illegible], son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W[illegible] Tuesday afternoon at the [illegible] Rev. Ralph [illegible] Ohio [illegible] the bride's attendants were Mrs. Ella Stewart and the bridegroom's brother, W[illegible] of Columbus.

For the wedding Miss Moore [illegible] fashioned with [illegible] lace in the jacket and sleeves. Her flowers were Talisman roses. Her attendant wore a dress in a blue shade and her corsage was red roses.

The bride's mother was costumed in a crepe dress in a pink shade with black motifs and wore a gardenia corsage. Mrs. Willis was costumed in black.

An informal reception followed the ceremony. The table held a tiered wedding cake and a centerpiece of American Beauty roses. Bouquets of yellow carnations, blue delphinium and gypsophila and varicolored peonies were the decorations throughout the rooms. When the couple left on a wedding trip the bride was wearing a black suit with white hat and accessories. They will make their home in Columbus where the bridegroom is associated with his father in the transfer business.

Mrs. Willis was graduated from St. Mary Parochial High school and was a fourth year student in pre-medics at Ohio State university. Mr. Willis was graduated from a Columbus High school and served with the armed forces overseas in World War II.

Here for the wedding were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Willis, Mrs. Raglan Ried and Mrs. Seward of Columbus.

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Frances Urban, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Urban of Luckey, O., to Don J. Norris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Norris of 673 Bennett street. The ceremony was read Saturday, May 1, at 10 o'clock in the morning in the Blessed Sacrament church in Toledo by Rev. Robert Dugan.

Attending the couple were Miss Janie Braun of Jackson, Mich., roommate of the bride at Bowling Green State university, Bowling Green, O., and Stephens B. Norris of Marion, brother of the bridegroom.

Richwood Girl And Columbus Man Wed

RICHWOOD—Announcement is being made here of the wedding in Columbus Sunday, May 30, of Miss Betty Louise Terry, daughter of Mrs. Cuba Terry of Richwood, and John Hill, son of Mrs. Hester Hill of Columbus. The double ring ceremony was read at 6:30 p.m. at Elmhurst where an altar was arranged with a background of palms and ferns, and decorated with baskets of white flowers and seven-branch candelabra. Rev. R. L. Brantly of a Columbus Baptist church officiated.

Given in marriage by a great uncle, William Chavous of Columbus, the bride approached the altar in a wedding gown of white marquisette with fitted lace bodice fashioned with sweetheart neckline and puffed sleeves. Her full skirt ended in a circular train, and her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was of white carnations and roses. Miss Mary Moran, maid of honor, wore pink marquisette and carried shattered carnations. Robert Dorsey was best man.

Four friends of the bride were hostesses at the reception.

The bridegroom is a junior in the college of engineering at Ohio State university. The bride was graduated from Richwood High school. After a short wedding trip they are at home at 1334 Hildreth avenue, Columbus. Attending the ceremony from Richwood were the bride's mother and Mrs. Ida Peyton and Miss Helen Peyton.

Gray Hair
RE-COLOR it with Canute Water
A few applications of this delightful beauty aid will re-color your gray hair completely — similar to its former natural shade. In one day if you wish — gradually if you prefer. Then primp just once a month to KEEP it young looking. Do not confuse Canute Water with tints or rinses that wash off. Shampooing actually improves the rich, warm new color and leaves your hair fresh, clean and natural to the touch. You may even curl it or get a permanent, if you wish.
No Other Product Can Make All These Claims
Skin test NOT needed. Colorless and crystal-clear. Proved harmless at one of America's Greatest Universities. Thirty years without injury to a single user. Is it any wonder that leading dealers in most of America's largest cities sell more Canute Water than all other hair colorings combined! At drug stores everywhere.

TELEGRAPH OFFICE CLOSING APPROVED

FCC Rules in Case Involving Mt. Gilead, Other Towns.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 7 — The ... Communications Commission today authorized Western ... to turn over the handling ... telegrams to the local ... companies in six Ohio ... members of the commission dissented, supporting the protest of the commercial telegraphers union that the plan, involving competing mediums of communication, raises a question for ... under anti-trust ...

Chairman Wayne Coy and Commissioner Clifford J. Durr joined in asserting that the arrangement would end competition between Western Union and the phone companies in Bellefontaine, Delaware, Lebanon, Marysville Mount Gilead and Ottawa, O., where the agreement will apply.

It may well be, they said, that an improved telegraph service would result from a consolidation of all telegraph and telephone operations. But Congress, they said, laid down a broad general policy in the anti-trust laws, and questions to policy which congress has laid down should be made only by congress. We think the application should be denied.

The majority, however, said the plan will give 24 hour telegraph service for the first time to ... communities ... involved and that ... effects of competition are outweighed by the benefits to the public.

Strikers Picketing Warren Newspaper

By The United Press

WARREN, June 7 — Striking printers picketed the Warren Tribune-Chronicle today but officials of the paper said they planned to publish by the Web-type process.

Members of local 601 of the International Typographical Union voted Saturday night to strike over wage differences and set 8 a. m. today to begin picketing Warren's only daily newspaper.

E. A. Sinning, ITU International representatives, said the printers are asking a raise from $1.67½ an hour to $2.12½ hourly. He said the local turned down a company offer of a 10-cents hourly increase.

The Tribune Co., publishers of the Tribune-Chronicle, said the printers are now drawing an average weekly wage including overtime, of about $92 a week.

NEW COMET FLASHES ACROSS OHIO SKIES

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, June 7 —A fiery comet which looks as bright as the North Star has flashed into view in the sky over Cleveland, reports a Case Tech astronomer.

Dr. J. J. Nassau, director of the Case Tech observatory, said the comet made its Cleveland debut at dawn yesterday, trailing a mammoth tail estimated at "many millions of miles in length."

Reporting that the brilliant body was believed to be the discovery of an amateur Japanese astronomer named Honda, Dr. Nassau said he had snapped probably the first photographs of the spectacular phenomenon.

However, the comet is visible to the naked eye, he continued, and looks as bright as the North Star, although it is not as easily observed because its light is diffused and because it is near the horizon."

The comet appeared on the northeast horizon for a probable stay of seven weeks, Dr. Nassau said, and was composed of an "unusually large head" with three trails covering a distance of more than eight times the moon's diameter. Photographs showed it was moving rapidly toward the northwest.

The comet photographed by Dr. Nassau, it was reported, was seen in the southern part of Ohio by residents of Dayton and Cincinnati.

ARMY ENTERS FIGHT TO CONQUER FLOODS

By The Associated Press

PORTLAND, Ore., June 7 — The Army today threw a free engineering field command against the raging Columbia river. It was a desperate attempt to hold the weakening 100-mile dike front from Portland to the Pacific.

Twenty-six officers of the Army Engineer corps rushed to critical points in the heavily barricaded lower valley as the great river built up pressure with second flood crest ... The reinforcements ... lieutenant ... flying the night from Fort Belvoir, Va.

The time was short, the task huge.

Human Study Needs Stressed by Chas. Taft

By The Associated Press

DELAWARE, O., June 7 — Attorney Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati says colleges should set up human relationship courses.

The president of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, told Ohio Wesleyan university graduates last night the courses were necessary to "keep this world together."

He asserted the need resulted from the failure of world knowledge of human relationships to keep pace with scientific advancement.

The baccalaureate sermon was given by the Rev. Thomas Olson, Cleveland pastor. Rain forced commencement activities indoors for 449 seniors.

Ten honorary doctorates were awarded. They included Andrew P. Martin, Cleveland attorney, Doctor of Laws, and Frank M. Baker, executive secretary of Cleveland's Goodwill industries, Doctor of Divinity.

OHIO COMMUNITIES HIT BY BUS STRIKES

By The Associated Press

EAST LIVERPOOL, June 7 — Public ... in seven communities ... state area was paralyzed today by a strike of bus drivers and garage employes.

Nine industrial firms in East Liverpool, however, reported there were few absentees and mid-shape-the-ride plans worked out in advance had held absences to normal.

Bus strikes also were scheduled for today in Springfield and Lorain.

But in Lorain, the transportation system operated as usual this morning, as drivers and garagemen postponed their walkout.

However, a strike of AFL bus drivers paralyzed public transportation today in Springfield.

Buses of City Bus Lines Inc. were locked up at 4 a. m. after the AFL bus drivers union carried out the stoppage in support of pay increase demands.

Fire Sweeps Swanky Night Club in Florida

By The Associated Press

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., June 7 — Fire swept Copa Cabana night club, scene of some of Florida's gayest night life during the winter season, was swept early today by fire.

Fire Chief D. C. Kennett estimated the loss at about $250,000.

Miami Beach Policeman H. L. Perdue, who lives near the night club, turned in the alarm about 4 a. m. He said a "terrific explosion" preceded the blaze which gutted the lush furnishings and left only the shell of an outside wall standing.

Farm Boys Accepted For C. of C. Gilt Program

Ten Marion county farm youths' applications for the 1949 purebred gilt program were approved at the meeting of the agriculture committee of the Marion Chamber of Commerce held at noon Friday at Hotel Harding.

Approval of the applications will permit each of these boys to take part in the pure-bred gilt program of the committee for next year. Each of the boys will be notified by mail next week of their acceptance. They will attend a meeting Friday, June 11, at 9 p. m. at the Chamber offices. Parents of the boys, their vocational agriculture advisors, and the agriculture committee will attend the meeting at which the gilt program will be explained in full detail, contracts signed between the boys and the committee, and the gilts assigned to each boy.

At Friday's meeting the seven boys participating in the 1948 gilt program were each assigned an agriculture committee member as sponsor to assist and supervise preparation of the gilts raised under this year's program. The gilts will be shown at the Marion county fair the week of Aug. 22.

Women from Waldo and the community attended a demonstration on home canning and the processing of foods by freezing, held at the Bethlehem grange hall Thursday afternoon. The meeting was sponsored by the office of the county agent with Miss Mary Faye McMillan, county home demonstration agent in charge. Miss McMillan also tested pressure cookers in preparation for the canning season. A similar meeting will be held Wedneday when the LaRue Homemakers club meets with Mrs. Ivah Owen of southwest of LaRue.

WALDO SOCIETY MEETS

An all-day meeting was held by the WSCS of the Waldo Methodist church Wednesday, June 2, in the hall at Waldo. Eight members responded to roll call and the meeting opened with a song by the group, followed by prayer. Devotions were conducted on the theme, "I Am My Brother's Keeper," and Mrs. Trefz was in charge of the program. The time was spent in quilting. The next meeting will be July 7.

Health Measure for Expectant Mother

To safe... the ... breast ... the ... expectant mother must take a good many special health measures during pregnancy, and few are more important than those needed to keep the breasts in good condition.

Painful breasts not only interfere with the breast feeding which is so essential to the baby's well-being but may also give warning of severe infection detrimental to the mother's health.

An infection of this kind is known as mastitis and it is one of the things which an extra bit of care during pregnancy can prevent. Instances where precaution is especially necessary are those in which the nipples are retracted or pulled back into the breast. Just why this happens is not definitely known but, whenever it does, there is a tendency for small cracks to develop around the nipples so that the germs can find entrance into the breast tissues.

It is suggested that, beginning during the seventh month of pregnancy, glass nipple shields be worn continuously. These are kept on with a well-fitting brassiere and can be worn comfortably all day. Each night, during the last two months of pregnancy, the breasts and nipples are massaged with an oil or liquid paraffin. After massaging, the nipple is gently squeezed with the finger and thumb to express a little of the fluid of the breast known as colostrum. Lanolin may also be employed to soften dry nipples.

The day after the baby is delivered a supporting breast binder is worn. Every four to six hours, until the milk begins to flow freely, the baby is allowed to nurse at each breast for a few minutes.

Beginning on the second day after the delivery of the baby, the mother massages the breasts and expresses some of the milk just before feeding time to help keep up the milk flow.

In those instances in which the breasts become swollen due to congestion, nursing is stopped temporarily and the breasts are gently massaged before the binder is put on. It is suggested that a substance known as stilbestrol be given every four hours. This helps to relieve the tension in the breasts. As soon as the swelling and congestion begin to clear up, the breast feeding may be resumed. In the meantime, the flow of milk can be kept up by gentle hand expression of the breasts.

Every mother should keep these important facts in mind because every mother should want to breast feed her baby and mastitis or breast inflammation ... interfere with this vital factor in the baby's welfare.

New York Stock Quotations

NEW YORK, June 7—Losses of fractions to around a point liberally sprinkled the stock market today.

Moderate selling was enough to tip the price scale downward. The big blocks of stock that appeared on the ticker tape with fair regularity last week all but disappeared.

Issues selling lower included U. S. Steel, Republican Steel, General Motors, Goodrich, Montgomery Ward, Deere & Co., Western Union, American Smelting, General Electric, Santa Fe, Illinois Central and Texas Co.

Doing a little better than most for a while were Bethlehem Steel, Douglas Aircraft, National Distillers, Owens-Illinois and Gulf.

MORROW PAGEANT PLANS INCLUDE 400

Special to The Star

MT. GILEAD, June 7—Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Dorrington of the John B. Rogers Producing company, Fostoria, directors of the Morrow county centennial pageant, are now located in Mt. Gilead and will start rehearsals today at Level[illegible]. Their plans were outlined last week at a meeting held with talent chairmen of the different county communities.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorrington experienced in the production of historical pageants, state that the actual historical events of Morrow county have furnished them material for one of the best scenarios they have produced.

A cast of about 400 persons from the county will be required to stage this spectacular event. Approximately 200 men and women, and 200 boys and girls are needed. Complete costumes will be furnished to everyone in the cast.

The stage, 200x75 feet will be situated across from the grandstand at the Morrow county fairground and will be large enough to accommodate a horse and wagon train.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorrington stressed the fact that more actors are needed. Those wishing to volunteer as members of the cast should contact the talent chairmen in the different county communities. They are, Johnsville, Max Kennedy; Marengo, Mrs. Lucille Saltz; Cardington, H. B. Fleming; Sparta, Mrs. Robert Fulton; Chesterville, W. G. Spies; Edison, Ida Pfeifer; Iberia, George Ruhl; Fulton, Bonnie Baker; and Mt. Gilead, Richard Denton.

The centennial will be held on July 3, 4 and 5. The pageant will be presented on the nights of July 4 and 5.

$420,000 Bond Quota Set in Wyandot Co.

UPPER SANDUSKY, June 7—A quota of $420,000 has been set for the bond sale drive in Wyandot county during June. William Olpp has been named county chairman of the savings bond committee and L. H. Hoag selected as drive chairman. Township chairmen who served in the bond drives during World War I have been reappointed for the current campaign. Lee T. Jones of the Star theatre, and Neil Rall, Daily Chief-Union editor, are leaders of a special promotional committee.

MILITARY RITES HELD FOR CAPT. R. E. FOGLE

Marion Man, Killed in France, Returned for Burial.

Funeral services for Capt. Richard E. Fogle, Marion serviceman killed in France in 1944 and returned here Thursday for final interment, were conducted at 2 p. m. Saturday at Epworth Methodist church by Dr. V. E. Busler, pastor, followed by graveside services in charge of Bird-McGinnis Post No. 162, American Legion. The remains lay in state at the church from 11 a. m. Saturday until funeral time.

For the burial in Forest Glen Memorial park, the Eagles band, under the direction of [illegible] Karber, joined the procession at the entrance to the cemetery for the memorial [illegible]. Flag bearers were R. E. Copeland and Earl Caldwell, and the flag which draped the casket was folded by Glen Moore and D. J. MacDonald. The eulogy was read by John H. Moore, post commander, and [illegible] of Bird-McGinnis post. Louis V. Dutton and Gerald Messenger of G. I. Post served as color guard.

Pall bearers were from the Reserve Officers association and included Capt. Edward G. Murphy, Capt. John Turner, Lt. Robert L. Reed, Lt. Jack Bray, Major James A. Mautz, Lt. Robert Truka, Capt. John Miller and Major Donald A. Cuthbert. Honorary pall bearers were Robert White, Paul Bachman, Warren Cyders, Walter Haldeman, Richard Langdon, Everett Caldwell, Ralph Hurr and Ralph White, all of the National City Bank where Capt. Fogle was employed prior to entering service.

The firing squad was from Co. C, 166th Infantry, Ohio National Guard and was composed of S/Sgt. Warren G. Snyder, First Sgt. Karl Knoksel, Cpl. Richard Hinkson, Cpl. John Garrison, Pfc. Charles Kinney, Pfc. Jesse Blevins, Pvt. Oren Hatch and Pvt. Glenn McQuillen. The funeral Dirge Deloire was played at the graveside by the Eagles band and taps were sounded by Woodrow Kaelber with the echo by George Barnhart.

The flag-draped casket was escorted Thursday from the Union Station to the Merle H. Hughes Mortuary on Mt. Vernon avenue by a delegation of members of Bird-McGinnis post. Capt. N. B. Childers of Ft. Hayes served as government escort from the distribution center at Columbus to the funeral home, after which Captain Engerof the Fort Hayes Escort Detachment acted as military escort.

ARRAIGN PRISONER ON ASSAULT CHARGE

Norman W. Miller Enters Plea of Guilty.

The first of 19 persons indicted by the May grand jury appeared before Common Pleas Judge Paul D. Smith this morning for arraignment.

Norman W. Miller entered a plea of guilty to an indictment for assault, appearing at 10 a. m. with his attorney, Frank Wiedemann. The court took the case under advisement.

Arraignment of the remainder of the record list of persons indicted last Wednesday has been set to begin at 9:30 tomorrow.

Walter G. Quesenberry and William J. Comos, the two West Virginians charged with the holdup of a filling station near Waldo, face the most serious of charges. They were indicted for armed robbery. Conviction carries a 10 to 25 year sentence.

Also appearing for arraignment will be Perry French, indicted for arson. French will be represented by Attorney Thomas Fetter.

MOVE TO MICHIGAN

Mr. and Mrs. Serge Baker and son, Doran, who formerly resided in the Delaware Dam area north of Delaware, are now making their home near Munising, Mich., where they are building a resort. The Bakers sold their property to the government last fall and then spent four months in Florida before going to Michigan. They lived near Meeker for a time before moving to Delaware.

SIX ARE INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENTS

Mother and Son Are in City Hospital.

An eight-year-old boy and his mother, Mrs. Carl Rider of near Marion, are reported to be in "fairly good" condition today in City hospital, following their injury in a truck-car collision early Sunday morning. Mrs. Leslie Gear of 523 Decatur street is also reported to be in fairly good condition today after being admitted to the hospital for injuries suffered about noon Sunday when she turned her car off the highway to avoid a trailer running loose on route 4.

A total of four automobile accidents resulted in injury to six over the weekend the state highway patrol reported.

Gerald Rider suffered a possible fracture of the jaw and Mrs. Rider suffered a broken wrist at 9:20 a. m. Sunday on highway 4 about two and one-half miles south of Marion when the vehicle in which they were riding and a construction truck owned by the Gentry Construction Co. and driven by John Henry McGarry of Louisville collided at the intersection of Somerlot road and route 4. The injured were taken to City hospital in the Schaffner-Denzer ambulance.

Mrs. Gear, driving south on highway 4 at 11:55 a. m. Sunday at approximately the same location of the Rider accident, drove her car into a roadside ditch to avoid hitting a trailer which had come loose from a tractor driven by Allen Stewart of Tampa, Fla. The vehicle was going north when the mishap occurred. Mr. Smith also was conveyed to the hospital in the Smith ambulance.

Mrs. Pattee Burks of Cleveland is being treated in the Jane Case hospital at Delaware for cuts and bruises received at 8:15 a. m. Sunday when a vehicle she was driving went out of control on highway 42 near Delaware.

At 9:45 Sunday, three miles south of Galion on highway 30-S, Mrs. John E. Martini of Detroit, Mich., suffered minor injury to her left arm, and Mrs. Francis M. Warner of near Prospect suffered shock when cars driven by Mr. Martini and Mr. Warner collided. Francis Warner was fined $10 and costs by Mayor Bennington of Mt. Gilead on a charge of failure to obey a stop sign, following the collision.

Others arrested by the patrol included Fred W. Smalley of North Robinson who was cited to appear before Mayor Hertzer of Bucyrus tonight, following his arrest at 10:50 p. m. Saturday on highway 602, charged with operating a vehicle with insufficient lights; Walter B. Miller of Galion, fined $10 and costs by Justice of the Peace R. Riblet of Galion, charged with failure to dim the headlights of his vehicle at 12:05 a. m. Sunday on highway 100; and John C. Gas of Findlay, arrested on a charge of driving while intoxicated, was fined $75 and costs by Justice of the Peace Riblet at 9:45 p. m. Saturday. Two passengers in the vehicle, Alexander E. Love of Bucyrus and Dennis Fult of Bucyrus were fined $10 and costs each on charges of intoxication.

TWO MEN INJURED IN WEEKEND FIRES

Brothers Burned in Blaze at Garage.

Three fires over the weekend resulted in injury to two persons and property damage amounting to $115, Fire Chief Owen Schitt reported today.

Bernard B[illegible] of 387 Waterloo street suffered first and second degree burns of his arms and face, and Frank B[illegible] of Newark, a brother, minor burns when an open can of gasoline became ignited by sparks from an extension cord. The blaze occurred at the McDaniel garage at 309 West Center street at 10:10 p. m. Saturday, when the cord was dragged across the open container. The blaze caused damage estimated at $100 to tools and a work bench in the garage. The injured were given first aid treatment by firemen. Prospect and West Center street station firemen responded.

A blaze at the Robert Shoemaker home at 119 Johnson street at 1:14 p. m. Saturday resulted in $10 damage to a rug which was used to extinguish flames caused by grease on a kitchen stove. The call was answered by Central and West Center street station firemen.

Firemen from West Center street station also answered a call to the corner of Bennett and Davids street when a car driven by Mrs. Elva Heil of Big Island caught fire. The blaze originated from a loose wire running from the generator.

BRUSH RIDGE CLUB MEETS

Mary Kern, Rozella Gettys, Shirley Neff, Jackie Constable, Linda Cahill and Mrs. Doris Bibler were present for a meeting of the Brush Ridge Hustlers 4-H club May 24. Mrs. Johnson showed the girls new ways to prepare food. The preparation of food is included in a project, "Salads, sandwiches and summer drinks," being run by the girls. The Hustlers were guests of the Marion Ohio Public Service on that day.

KIN OF MARION MINISTER KILLED

Victim Was Brother-in-Law of Rev. M. E. Hollensen.

Louis Johann, 45, of Collinsville, Ill., brother-in-law of Rev. M. E. Hollensen, pastor of Emanuel Lutheran church, was fatally injured Friday afternoon when struck by an automobile while crossing the highway in Collinsville. He died at 12:45 a. m. today in the hospital at East St. Louis, Ill., near Collinsville. He suffered from a skull concussion and the fracture of both legs. Mr. Johann had just parked his car and walked onto the highway when the accident occurred.

Rev. and Mrs. Hollensen and family are preparing to leave Tuesday for Collinsville.

Mr. Johann is survived by his wife, Mrs. Loretta Hollensen Johann, two sons, Louis and Robert at home, his mother, three brothers and two sisters, all of Collinsville.

A tentative funeral date has been set for Wednesday afternoon in Collinsville.

ANTI-FLY CAMPAIGN BEGINS IN GALION

Special to The Star

GALION, June 7. The local Jaycees were out early Sunday to open an anti-fly campaign by spraying DDT in the downtown business districts, and at outlying grocery stores and restaurants. Proprietors and owners of these places are cooperating in the campaign. A power sprayer was used by the group of men as they sprayed entrances of business places.

The local Jaycees are joining with 2,000 other communities in the country in the first organized national program to wipe out flies and other disease-bearing insects.

All residents of Galion are asked to unite in the effort by reading pamphlets which the Jaycees are distributing to citizens. The pamphlet will tell how to prevent flies in and around the home.

A general cleanup of garbage, repair of screens on doors and windows, in addition to the periodic use of DDT sprays and powders is the program which the Jaycees advocate for Galion citizens.

Marion County Man Injured in Columbus

Herman Irey of route 98 east of Marion suffered lacerations of the left leg in a headon collision late yesterday at the intersection of Cleveland and Essex avenues in Columbus according to a Columbus news report. Irey was treated at University hospital for injuries. Nancy G. Williams, 35, of Delaware, who was a passenger in Irey's car, suffered cuts about the head.

Irey's car collided with that of Joseph Caudy, 29, of Columbus. Caudy, his wife and two sons suffered minor lacerations and bruises in the crash, the item said.

Cubs Schedule Make-up Doubleheader with Portsmouth Here Tonight

Rain Washes Out Sunday Games After Brains Win 12-4 Saturday

The Portsmouth Athletics, 12 to 4 victims of the Marion Cubs Saturday night and rained out of a doubleheader Sunday, will meet the Cubs in a make up double bill starting at 6 30 here tonight.

Rain fell just before game time washing out yesterday's first game but the evening encounter was in its first inning before it was called because of wet grounds.

Immediately after the first pitch in the night affair, Manager George Staller of the A's notified Umpire Patrick Shaner that he was playing under protest because of the condition of the field, saying he wasn't willing to let his men "risk their necks on a slippery ball field," but the game was resumed after a nine-minute conference with the ump.

Slips Rounding Third

Charley Kaiser opened with a single and moved to second on an error, but he slipped while rounding third on Dick Brown's single and it was then that the game was called.

The Cubs charged that Staller had given his players pre-game instructions to slip and fall as soon as they got on base but to this charge Staller replied afterward, "I didn't have to give instructions—they couldn't stand up," adding, "it was the lousiest exhibition of sportsmanship I've seen to make those boys play on that field."

Staller's pitching choice for tonight's first game—a seven-inning game—is Jim McCrea, and the probable second-game hurler is Don Whitmore.

McCrea will oppose six-foot three-inch Jim Edgar, who has won two and lost none for Marion. Whitmore's probable opponent is lefty Frank Marchelli, who has won three and lost three.

Zeke Started Onslaught

Marion Manager Lew (Zeke) Bekeza's two-run homer in the first inning started the Cubs off on the 12 to 4 onslaught of the A's Saturday night.

After the base-clearing blast over the centerfield wall, starting pitcher Dutch Romberger filled the sacks, giving Bill Bolduc a double, hitting Bob Shuford with a pitched ball, and walking Don Schmitt. Ken Ostrander then doubled to left field chasing in the three runners and Romberger from the mound.

A stand full of fans saw the Cubs get to reliever Ken March for 10 more hits, and two runs in the third, fifth and seventh innings and another marker in the eighth. The game, a benefit for the Harding and St. Mary High school Boosters clubs, drew an estimated 2,900.

The Athletics touched Marion pitcher Ray Peet for 11 hits but failed to connect in the clutch.

With one out in the third, Staller, John Moore, and Hilly Flintcraft singled, scoring one run, but Forest Rende flied out and Tom Hockenbury struck out to end the inning with two stranded.

In the seventh, two walks and a Marion error filled the bases and Moore's one-base blow to left field scored two runners.

Flintcraft forced Moore at second, and Rende got on first safely when Marion first baseman Ken Ostrander failed to touch the sack after taking the throw. Jim Hockenbury scored the inning's third run on the error, and with two on, brother Tom struck out, ending the threat.

Extra Bases Count

It was Marion's extra base blows that brought them the win. Pete Schnepf, Bolduc, Ken Ostrander and Shuford all hit doubles, Bolduc tripled, and Bekeza homered to give the Cubs 24 bases, while the A's 11 hits were all singles.

Even should tonight's two games be played, it will still leave them two earlier postponements to be played.

Tuesday and Wednesday nights the league-leading Springfield Giants will be here and then the Cubs will take to the road for a 10-game trip.

Company C Downs M.M.P., 8-2, Friday

Company C of the Commercial softball league outscored M.M.P., 8-2, in a Friday night game to cling to first place in league standing. W & W and Shanty Town share second place standing with records of two won and one tied. The C-boys hold three wins without a reverse.

The game was played on Friday due to lack of playing facilities on Tuesday, but the difference in days had little effect on Company C as they pounded out nine safeties off Romer in scoring in five of seven innings. Kunkle allowed three hits.

INVITE MARION BOYS TO BASEBALL MEETING

Legion Gets Junior League Program Under Way.

Every boy in town over 11 years of age and under 17 is invited to attend a 'kick-off' meeting of the American Legion Junior Baseball team and officials at the Legion Dugout at 8 p. m. tomorrow.

The meeting in fact will launch the current season of junior baseball, but in purpose will serve to generate interest in forming several baseball teams among the younger set—a veritable farm system for the American Legion Junior Baseball team. Refreshments will be served and two baseball films, the 1947 World Series pictures showing the games between the Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Yankees, and a color film, "It's Your Team," will be shown.

It will be a regular meeting of Bird-McGinnis Post, co-sponsors of the city's Junior Baseball team, and many leading citizens of Marion, in addition to the Legionnaires and members of the baseball team, will be present.

Among those who will be in attendance are a representative from the Lincoln Mercury division of Ford Motor Co., Detroit, Mich.; Ralph Schick, agent for the Lincoln Mercury dealer here and co-sponsor of the team; W. E. Orcutt, manager of the team, Nelson Irvin, coach; Mayor Harry Dowler; Lester L. Dickey, superintendent of city schools; Edward J. Ruzzo, juvenile judge; the Very Rev. Father Spickerman, V.F., Rev. H. L. Olewiler, Rev. J. B. Holloway, Dr. V. E. Busler, and W. R. Martin, who will preside.

3 ENTER LONDON'S BIG CAR RACES

Special to The Star

LONDON, O., June 7—Three hot shot race drivers have entered the big car auto races to be held Sunday afternoon at the Madison county fairgrounds track located at the northern edge of London on state route 38.

The first trio to get their names on the dotted line are Jack Andrews of Dayton who'll drive a Glad Min Special; Buck Barr of Zanesville, in a 4-Port Riley; and Red Bales of Columbus in his Myles Riley.

Time trials for Sunday's events will start at noon and the first race on the program will be away at 2:30 p. m. Seven events complete the program.

Cincinnati Golfer Wins in California

By The Associated Press

LOS ANGELES, June 7—Little Toney Penna, the consistent Cincinnati, O., Linksman, was warmed up today for a prime effort in the U.S. Open Golf tourney starting here Thursday.

The Italian-born golfer clicked off 72 holes in 279 to nab the Southern California Open yesterday by four strokes over Zell Eaton, Montebello, Calif., pro. Penna was one under par for the route.

Penna's win was worth $500.

SPRINGFIELD BACKS INTO LEAGUE LEAD

By The Associated Press

The Springfield Giants regained first place in the Ohio-Indiana baseball league yesterday, although they never swung a bat.

The Springfield at Lima game was postponed by rain, and the Giants took over the lead by two percentage points—.686 to .684—when Zanesville nicked Muncie in a wierd, 15-14 affair.

Zanesville won with 13 runs in the final three frames, and scored the winning run on Don Thomas' bunt with the bases loaded in the last of the ninth.

The second game of the Muncie-Zanesville doubleheader was postponed because of rain. The Richmond-Newark nightcap also was washed out, after Newark took the opener, 8-5. The game was called at the end of the eighth.

There were only two games played yesterday. The Marion-Portsmouth doubleheader also was rained out.

SIGN TROY PITCHER

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, June 7—A Cincinnati Reds farm club signed Harold (Corky) Valentine, 18-year-old Troy, O., pitcher, yesterday. Valentine, who was graduated from high school last month, will join the Sunbury, Pa., club in the Interstate league.

REDS GO DOWN IN 5-INNING CONTEST

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, June 7 — The Cincinnati Reds played only five innings of a scheduled doubleheader yesterday but that's all that was needed to push them back into seventh place.

A crowd of 26,554, out to see a full afternoon of baseball, had two disappointments. Rain ended ball playing for the day after five innings of the first game and the score favored the Brooklyn Dodgers 5-0. Wet grounds and continued showers necessitated postponement of the second tilt.

The win boosted the Dodgers into sixth place, a half game ahead of the Rhinelanders.

Joe Hatten, Brooklyn southpaw, was in command throughout the abbreviated contest. He allowed only two hits, fanned two Reds and gave up no bases on balls.

His mates, meanwhile, were shelling Howie Fox, Cincinnati starter, for eight hits and all of the runs.

ASHLAND, MANSFIELD LEAD NCO LEAGUE

The NCO Inter-City softball league entered its second week of competition today with the Ashland Indians and Mansfield Gorman-Rupp setting the pace.

Ashland and Mansfield, after the first week, boast identical records — two wins and no losses.

Ashland scored a 9 to 1 victory over the Willard Elks in the Indians' first game of the season and nipped the Routh Packers of Tiffin in their second start, 1 to 0. Gorman-Rupp kept pace with the Ashlanders by registering a 3 to 2 victory over Tiffin in eight innings and a 3 to 0 triumph over Smitty's Grill of Marion.

Willard and Marion were the only other NCO teams to taste victory during the first week of loop activity. The Elks of Willard touched off the league's 60-game season by nosing out Stone's Grill of Mt. Vernon, 5 to 4, and Marion broke into the win column by hanging out a 6 to 0 triumph at the expense of the same team.

Ashland gets a chance to move ahead of Mansfield this week. The Indians have two games while Gorman-Rupp has only one scheduled.

Ashland plays at Marion tonight and entertains Mt. Vernon Wednesday night. Mansfield's only league engagement will be at Willard Thursday night.

Only three other games are on the program this week. Marion is scheduled to invade Tiffin Wednesday night and Tiffin is slated to travel to Mt. Vernon Friday night for a double-header.

SIX HIGH SCHOOLS FORM BI-STATE LOOP

By The Associated Press

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., June 7—Six Ohio and West Virginia teams in the new Bi-State football conference have a ten-game schedule cut out for them this season.

The schedule was drawn yesterday as the new loop tentatively adopted a constitution and by-laws, subject to final approval at a July 18 session here.

Teams in the conference are Ironton, Portsmouth and Jackson, O., and South Charleston, Eastbank and Logan, W. Va.

Commissioner Fred Burns of Huntington said each team will play every other team twice for a total of ten games each during the regular season.

Baldwin Wallace Still King of Ohio Track

By The Associated Press

DELAWARE, O., June 7—Baldwin Wallace still is king of Ohio college track and field. The Yellow Jackets won the state meet for the fourth straight time here Saturday, nosing Miami, 62 1 5 to 58 5 10.

Seven records were broken and one tied in the 15 events, but B-W's great Harrison Dillard didn't share in the record smashing. However, Dillard won three events—the 100 yard dash and both hurdles—and anchored the winning 800 yard relay team. The individual triumphs ran his consecutive victory string to 76.

Gunther Katzmar, another B-W star, scored 18 points with wins in the 220 and 440-yard dashes, and seconds in the low hurdles and broad jump.

Indians Move Out Front 2½ Games; Cardinals Regain National Loop Lead

By The Associated Press

From a "grade-conscious" team of a few weeks ago, the American league Cleveland Indians have suddenly burst forth with one of the finest mound corps in the majors.

Manager Lou Boudreau had a pleasant surprise in the "discovery" of rookie Gene Bearden as a first rate starting pitcher to team with his reliables, Bob Feller and Bob Lemon.

Helena Ark., has won five games and lost only one. He has allowed only 10 runs and 32 hits in 51 innings, an average of about five hits and two runs per game.

Feller has five victories and two shutouts. Lemon appears to have received the No. 1 rating from Feller with eight triumphs including three shutouts. The Indian pitchers boast seven shutouts, more than any staff in the league.

Wins 1st Start

The fourth starter likely is Steve Gromek. The 28-year-old righthander from Hamtramck, Mich., who won 19 games in 1945, twirled a six-hitter in his first start of the season yesterday.

Gromek teamed with Lemon in pitching the Indians to a pair of victories over the Philadelphia Athletics, 5-3 and 11-1. The double triumph increased the Indians' first place margin over the Athletics to two and a half games.

Rookie Joe Tipton, stylish catcher who batted .375 in the Eastern league last year, clouted five straight hits in his return to action after a week on the injury list. The young lefthander from ... The spree sent Joe's hitting streak to eight consecutive safeties, four short of Pinky Higgins' major league mark, and gave him a sensational .542 average.

The New York Yankees have been climbing at a steady pace and now are only three games off the pace. They whipped the St. Louis Browns, 4-3, and 3-0, yesterday to climb within half a game of the second place A's. The double defeat, St. Louis's fifth and sixth in succession, dropped the Browns into seventh place.

Cards Down Phillies

The St. Louis Cardinals regained the lead in the National league pennant race by defeating the Philadelphia Phillies twice in St. Louis, 11-1 and 2-0. Red Schoendienst led the attack for the Cards with five doubles and a home run. Red clouted three doubles Saturday. The Cards teed off for 14 hits in the opener against three pitchers. They clubbed four home runs in the sixth inning—by Enos Slaughter, Erv Dusak, Schoendienst and Nippy Jones. The record of five home runs in one inning was made by the New York Giants in 1939.

Richie Ashburn, rookie Philadelphia outfielder, was held hitless in both games ending his consecutive game hitting streak at 23, a new mark for a first year man. Johnny Mize, back in 1936, and Dale Mitchell of Cleveland last year, each had 22 in their first year.

The New York Giants fell out of first place, a half game behind the Cardinals, when they were held to a split in their doubleheader with the Pirates in Pittsburgh. The Giants manhandled the Pirates, 16-4, in the opener but lost to the Bucs, 4-3, in the second game.

The Brooklyn Dodgers moved past Cincinnati into sixth place by defeating the Reds, 5-0, in the first game of a scheduled doubleheader in Cincinnati. Rain halted the first game after five innings and prevented the second game from being played. Jackie Robinson made his first major league appearance at third base for the Dodgers.

Sain Beats Cubs

Johnny Sain pitched and batted the Boston Braves to a 1-0 victory over the Cubs in Chicago. The tall righthander blanked the Cubs on four hits and topped it off by singing against Russ Meyer to score Jim Russell with the lone run.

The rebounding Red Sox vaulted from seventh place into a triple tie for fourth in the American league by sweeping a twin-bill from the Detroit Tigers in Boston, 5-4 and 12-4. Ted Williams, Stan Spence and Vern Stephens homered in succession in the sixth inning of the second game to equal a record. It was the second time the Red Sox accomplished the feat this season.

Chicago's White Sox handed the Senators a double licking in Washington, 10-4 and 11-4, for their first victories over the Nats in seven games.

NO SPLITS OCCUR IN AA DOUBLEHEADERS

By The Associated Press

Sunday's round of American Association doubleheaders resulted in clean sweeps without a split. Indianapolis and Milwaukee each gained two victories to remain in the thick of the leadership fight.

Columbus replaced St. Paul in third place as the lowly Kansas City Blues blasted the Saints 5-3 and 8-3.

The Tribe maintained a 5½ game lead over the Brewers by brushing off Toledo 9-8 and 13-4. Jim Bagby was credited with his 11th victory in 12 starts although leaving the mound after giving up 13 hits in the opener.

Glenn Elliott and Mario Picone counted homers to give Milwaukee a 3-2 edge over Minneapolis. The Brews took the nightcap 4-3 on successive homers by Nanny Fernandez and Damon Phillips, in the sixth inning of the seven-inning contest.

Columbus pounded Louisville into the cellar by winning 3-2 and 7-6. The Flock captured the nightcap on Tom Glavino's two-run homer in the seventh.

The clubs are idle Monday.

Ohio To Send Seven To National Bike Race

By The Associated Press

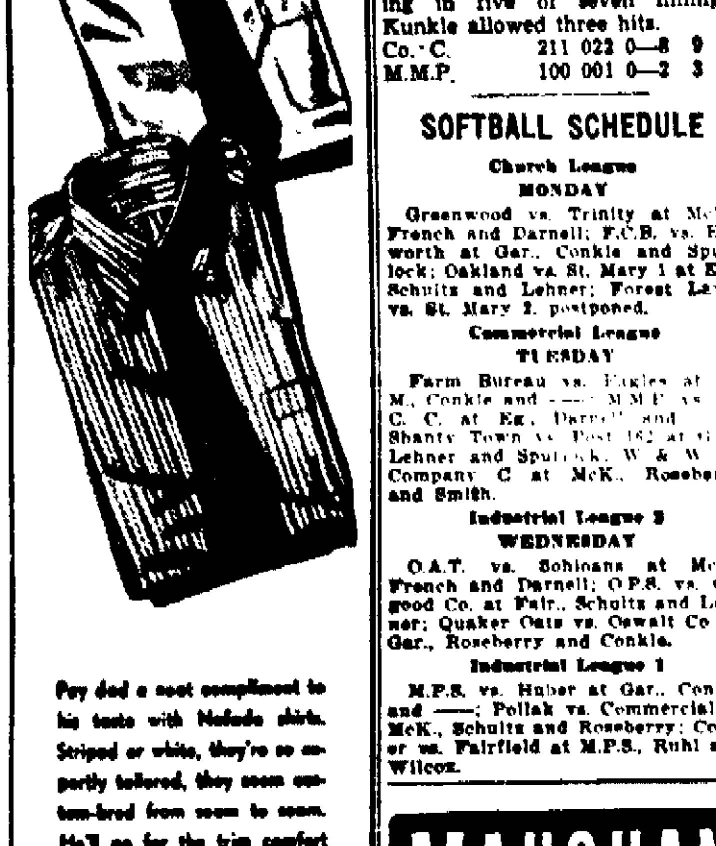

COLUMBUS, O., June 7—Ohio will send seven men to the National Olympic bicycle race championships at Milwaukee June 21.

Buckeye pedal-pushers grabbed seven of the district qualifying berths here yesterday, although the first two places went to out-of-staters.

Spencer Bush, Buffalo, N. Y., the 1947 National Junior Bike champ, finished 17 minutes ahead of second place Claire Young, Detroit, in a 136-mile race over a closed course. Ohioans took the next seven places in this order: Bill Whipple, Athens, O.; Eugene McPherson, Columbus; Dick Korver, Cleveland; Vernon Barnes, Cleveland; Ray Stetina, Cleveland; Dick Davies, Columbus; Tom Lewis, Columbus.

Very good location, East, six room completely modern home with three bedrooms and bath, newly remodeled kitchen, is completely modern and has all built-in features. The house has just recently been painted both inside and out. Has a full two-room basement. There is a large lot with plenty of shade, also a good three-car garage. A real buy. Be sure and see it.

Nice modern home on main highway about five miles east of town. Full basement, four bedrooms, seven acres and extra good black land. This is one of the places you won't want to miss when you are looking for a nice home. It is priced for quick sale.

When you are looking for a home, be sure to call us as we have many nice modern homes in town and near town with or without acreage, and also some with small acreage and also large farms. Just call us when looking for your new home.

The feeling is "The Voice of America" never will catch on until it starts giving away refrigerators for answering the telephone.

• • •

But I can't quite see Secretary Marshall phoning Moscow to ask "are you ready and willing to play?"

• • •

Still we have "Mystery Tune," "Mystery Voice" and "Mystery Quotation" contests running . . . There's no reason why "Mystery Policies" couldn't buy listeners abroad with a big-enough give-away.

• • •

The reason congress is so sore about "The Voice of America" is that congress thought it was.

• • •

And there seems to be doubt as to whether the program has any rating . . . No one is quite sure whether it's Hooper or Blooper.
